

Partnership Certification Agreement

Joe's Trail Segment Sometown, Kentucky

Type of Property: Historic Site

Owner: Joseph Landowner

General

This agreement represents the Secretary of the Interior's certification, under section 7(h) of the National Trails System Act, that Joe's Trail Segment located on Route 33 near Sometown, Kentucky meets the national historic trail criteria established by the National Trails System Act and any supplemental criteria prescribed by the Secretary of the Interior.

The National Park Service and Joseph Landowner agree voluntarily to strive to achieve the highest level of resource protection and visitor appreciation of trail resources and history at Joe's Trail Segment as provided for in the Comprehensive Management and Use Plan for the Trail of Tears National Historic Trail for "...the identification and protection of the historic route and its historic remnants and artifacts for public use and enjoyment." (National Trails System Act 16 U.S.C. - 1241 et seq. Section 3(a)(3)).

Through this agreement, the National Park Service and Joseph Landowner agree to work jointly on planning, interpretation, resource management, and other matters that relate to the Trail of Tears National Historic Trail at Joe's Trail Segment, and to strive to meet the goals and objectives of the Comprehensive Management and Use Plan for the Trail.

Joseph Landowner retains all legal rights to the property and nothing in this agreement is to be construed as granting any legal authority to the National Park Service over the property or any action by Joseph Landowner.

The agreement may be canceled by either party at any time by providing written notice to the other party. The National Park Service and Joseph Landowner agree, whenever possible, to identify issues or concerns to allow for resolution.

This agreement will remain in effect unless cancelled by either party, or until the ownership of the property is transferred to another entity.
